A Night of Comedy with 2 One Act Plays

"Towpath" is produced by special arrangement with Stageplays.com

This amateur production of "Last Tango in Little Grimley" is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH LTD a Concord Theatricals Company.

You are probably aware by now that we are not yet allowed to perform our planned next production of 2 one act plays by 2 new directors who are so shiny and fresh they haven't even had their vaccinations yet. The government decided in their infinite wisdom (which, by the way, initially included eating restaurant food through a mask) that whilst it was OK for professionals to perform, amateurs were not allowed. So there you have it, tight underwear and a penchant for calling everyone "darling" protects you from the virus!

However, undaunted by a mere pandemic, the two sets of rehearsals are progressing in a safe and coronavirus-aware fashion which includes full body armour and a plentiful supply of alcohol which has to be swum through on entering the rehearsal area.

So at some point in the almanac we WILL bring you the two superb little plays, Towpath directed by Fiona Greavey and Last Tango in Paphos directed by Jane Stephens. They are both great little productions and the whole evening including time to check how hot you are and whether your hands can stand more alcohol than your stomach, will take only about 1 hour 20 minutes. Our valiant Rita in the box office, who controls seats more efficiently than a panty-hose emporium, will keep you informed of prospective dates for performance. But whatever happens, don't miss this artistic extravaganza!
