BRENDA MILLER

I am sad to report that I heard just before Christmas of the death of Brenda Miller who died on the 11th December at the age of 83. Brenda and her husband Mike, who was chairman of Stage One for a short period in 2005, left Cyprus several years ago for a quiet retirement in The Isle of Wight. She had been suffering from cancer for about a year and passed away peacefully. Brenda appeared on stage many times and her photograph hangs in the auditorium alongside the Director and Cast of Gosforth's Fete, the Rosebowl winner in 2005. She appeared in Waiting in the Wings, a lovable, singing Mrs Pearce in My Fair Lady and in the wonderful production of Crown Matrimonial. She is pictured on the right side of the photo.

Brenda's husband Mike sent me these few lines which he had written and will be read out at her funeral:-

"Those years we spent in Emba

Great fun- do you remember?

With Peter, Paul and Chris, and all

The others of Stage One."

We send our condolences to Mike and their family at this sad time. Many of us have happy memories of this lovely, talented lady.

Mike will be returning to Cyprus to visit, just as soon as he can, and we look forward to welcoming him back at that time.

PRS.
